Yamacraw Public Art by Jerome Meadows

May 13

Yamacraw Public Art Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

Presented by the Yamacraw Public Art Project

1 p.m. at the Yamacraw Public Art Park

Sponsored by the City of Savannah's Weave-A-Dream Program

For more information, contact 912-354-8454.

The Yamacraw Public Art Park will open with a ribbon cutting ceremony in front of the First Bryan Baptist Church in Yamacraw Village on Saturday, May 13 at 1p.m.

The event will include poetry, singing by the First Bryan Baptist Church Choir and Dance Group, Native American dancing and traditional African dances by the Ayoluwa African Dance Theater. Pottery and banners created by students of Garrison Elementary and Hubert Middle School will also be on display.

The park includes a fountain featuring three dancing children made of bronze, walls of photo-etched panels depicting people and events related to the site, native plantings, and banner supports used to announce park activities.

Designed by nationally recognized artist Jerome Meadows, whose projects include major sculpture commissions in Washington, DC, Alaska, Virginia, New Mexico and Maryland, the Yamacraw Public Art Park emphasizes the location's original inhabitants, the Yamacraw Indians, and First Bryan Baptist Church, the oldest African-American Baptist congregation in the United States.

City of Savannah Department of Cultural Affairs Deadlines

Call for Proposals: Contracts for Art Services

Deadline: July 7, 2006

The City of Savannah recognizes that arts initiatives are a catalyst for achieving the collective goals of economic development, neighborhood revitalization and enhancement of community pride. In addition, these initiatives provide individuals with the enjoyment, educational empowerment and skill development unique to the arts industry. For those reasons, Savannah is committed to ensuring that the arts are an integral resource in our community.

The City's Contracts for Art Services program allocates funds by means of the purchase of art services from eligible non-profit cultural/arts organizations for the benefit of all sectors of our city.

The Department of Cultural Affairs will be accepting proposals for the 2007 program until July 7, 2006 at 5:00 p.m.

Cultural Affairs staff will present several informative workshops for cultural organizations wishing to propose art services for purchase by the city during the 2007 calendar year. Eligible organizations include those that are designated as 501(c)(3)s, and are based in the City of Savannah.

Call for Proposals: Weave-A-Dream Projects

Deadline: Open Continuously

The City of Savannah allocates funding throughout the year for for small scale projects focusing on activities for teens ages 12-17. Call the Department of Cultural Affairs for details.
